About OLPC

Oakville Lynx Pickleball Club (OLPC) is a non-profit organization based in Oakville, Ontario, dedicated to promoting the growth of pickleball in our local community. Founded by a group of passionate players, we offer organized weekly play, structured training sessions, and seasonal events for players of all ages and skill levels.

As a proud affiliate of Pickleball Ontario and Pickleball Canada, OLPC is committed to creating an inclusive, supportive, and high-energy environment where players can improve their skills, build lasting friendships, and enjoy the fastest-growing sport in North America.

Through strategic partnerships and sponsorships, we strive to expand access to quality facilities and coaching in Oakville, and to continue making pickleball a key part of the town's recreational landscape.

We're not just passionate organizers - we're champions on the court, too. Members of Oakville Lynx Pickleball Club have actively competed in tournaments across Ontario, earning medals and top finishes in multiple events. Our players consistently demonstrate skill, teamwork, and sportsmanship. These achievements reflect our club's commitment to excellence and our ability to represent Oakville proudly in the broader pickleball community.

| Why Sponsor?

Sponsoring Oakville Lynx Pickleball Club is more than just brand visibility - it's a partnership with a growing, vibrant community in the heart of Oakville.

- Local Reach & Community Engagement

Connect directly with active residents in Oakville through our weekly games, training sessions, and tournaments held throughout the year.

- Brand Exposure

Your business will be featured across high-traffic platforms - our website, social media, team apparel, and event materials - giving your brand consistent visibility among players, spectators, and their families.

- Support Grassroots Development

Help us grow the sport at the community level by expanding access to youth programming, coaching resources, and indoor facility rentals.

- Align with a Healthy, Inclusive Lifestyle

Pickleball promotes fitness, wellness, and social connection across all ages - values your brand can proudly stand behind.
